

Annual Limits Waiver Applicants Receiving Denial Letters

Updated January 6, 2012

Some applicants for waivers of the annual limits requirements were denied. Generally, these applicants did not demonstrate that compliance with the minimum annual limits requirements would significantly increase premiums or decrease access to benefits. These applicants are notified of the opportunity to be reconsidered for an approval if they provide additional materials explaining how their plan will experience a significant increase in premium or decrease in access to benefits as a result of the denial of the waiver. Those plans that were approved upon reconsideration are also listed on the public approval list.
