

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services
Questions and Answers
Long Term Services and Support Open Door Forum
Tuesday, January 30, 2024

1. Question: Are the states required to post any additional granular data or spending information on their own websites that we should be looking for? I know Indiana has a page that we've been looking at for additional information, but is there any kind of requirement for any kind of granular level spending data?
 - a. Answer: We are not requiring states to post more granular information, although states are certainly welcome to, and some states are posting more granular information, but they're not required to.

This Q and A document was current at the time it was published or uploaded onto the web. CMS policy changes frequently so links to the source documents have been provided within the document for your reference. This Q and A document was prepared as a service to the public and is not intended to grant rights or impose obligations. This Q and A document may contain references or links to statutes, regulations, or other policy materials. The information provided is only intended to be a general summary. It is not intended to take the place of either the written law or regulations. We encourage readers to review the specific statutes, regulations, and other interpretive materials for a full and accurate statement of their contents.